

Things Known

It's interesting, grandad said

Sitting at the kitchen table

I don't feel any different than I did when I was young

I didn't believe him then

It took 60 more years to understand

That being old doesn't mean

Becoming someone else

An alien who doesn't know anything...

Though now that I'm "old"

The things I know are not the same

I'm not up on the latest teen fads

Or popular music, movies and heart throbs

But I do know

That life never stays the same

People and things can slip away quickly

Friends are important

And even though my understanding has changed

I don't feel any different than I did when I was young
