An ongoing series of events have reignited the focus on eliminating systemic racism and the fight for diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI). Join LeadingAge Ohio as we continue the conversation which began in October and further explore both the business and societal case for DEI. While the importance and value of DEI is often spoken of in regard to the business case—increased innovation, better decision-making and top-line revenue—this session's case studies will highlight how LeadingAge Ohio members have taken steps to value every individual voice and how these members are leading to elevate the society case and the compassionate case for DEI.

Who will benefit from this series?

- HR Managers
- Executive Directors
- Administrators
- CEOs
- Supervisors
