Models of Graceful Transition of Sponsorship Webinar

April 7, 2021

In today's challenging operational and financial climate, it is vital to understand the local and national landscape for partnerships and affiliations between aging services providers. Join Ziegler representatives to hear the latest trends and transactions driving consolidation around the United States and in Ohio, particularly. The details of how some organizations secure their legacy, while others are forced to close their doors, will be explored. This session will examine how a well-structured affiliation can maximize return for its stakeholders, and practical tools for (confidentially) considering sponsorship transition in a thoughtful, organized and efficient manner will be shared.
